Conditions of Auction Sale.

This is a public auction conducted by Obelisk Auctions. Bidding in the auction constitutes acceptance of the following terms and conditions:

1. The auctioneer reserves the right to reject any bid, to determine the opening price, to set bidding increments, to vary the order of the auction, to reopen bidding in the case of a dispute, to withdraw any lot, to bid on behalf of himself, to bid on behalf of the consignor/seller, and to permit the consignor/seller to bid on his own lots. The auctioneer may bid on his own account as an "insider" with information not available to the public.

2. All vehicles/lots are sold 'as is' in their present state ('tale quale') without any warranties, express or implied, or conditions including, but not limited to, warranties as to latent defects, warranties of merchantable quality, satisfactory quality, merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose, or those arising by Law, statute, usage of trade, course of dealing or otherwise. The entire risk as to the results and performance of the vehicles is assumed by the participant in the auction. In this respect, the participant declares to have duly examined and inspected the item/s purchased prior to the auction and to be satisfied with its present condition and state. Accordingly, participants/buyers shall rely entirely on their own judgment and inspection of property. No person shall have any claim against the auctioneer and the seller, their agents, employees or principals for any injuries sustained nor for damages to or loss of property which may occur from any cause whatsoever. All oral statements made on the auction day supersede any printed materials.

3. Whilst descriptions are believed to be accurate, the auctioneer and the seller make no warranties or guarantees, expressed or implied. The auctioneer and the seller will not be held responsible for any description discrepancies or inaccuracies.

4. It is the buyer's sole responsibility for the removal of the items purchased and, accordingly, each buyer must supply his own handling of equipment and personnel. On taking delivery of the item/s purchased (which for the purpose of these Auction Terms shall be deemed to mean the moment when the auction lot is won by the bidder), the item/s shall be under the direct care and custody of the bidder and shall be at the bidder's sole and exclusive risk. It is the buyer's responsibility to secure all safety equipment to meet all applicable government safety standards in using or removing items purchased.

5. Successful bidders for any of the Auction Lots do not incur any additional fees over and above the bid price struck down by the Auctioneer. The bidder will not and cannot cancel a bid placed after the bidder has confirmed the bid. All sales are final.

6. All successful bidders will be required to pay in cash or by bank draft immediately after the conclusion of the auction, a deposit of 20% of the winning bid subject to a minimum of €1,000. The auctioneer may require payment in full from any bidder upon such bidder winning the lot. In all cases, all successful bidders shall settle the balance due within a maximum of forty eight (48) hours of the date of the auction. In default, and without prejudice to the auctioneer's and/or the seller's other rights and remedies available in terms of Law, the buyer shall forfeit the deposit paid. Title does not pass until lots are paid in full.

7. Minors are not permitted to bid without written consent of a parent guaranteeing payment.

8. The auctioneer or the seller may place a reserve on any lot.

9. Bidders personally guarantee payment for their successful bids, including bidders executing commission bids from other parties and bidders representing companies or other entities. Buyers accepting commission bids from other parties do so at their own risk and remain responsible for payment under these Auction Terms.

10. In the event a successful bidder fails to make full payment within 30 days of the auction date, the auctioneer and/or the seller reserves the right to deem the sale incomplete and to resell the material, and the bidder agrees to pay for the reasonable cost of such a sale and also to pay any difference between the resale price and the previously successful bid. The auctioneer and the seller reserve all rights that they are entitled to in terms of Maltese Law.

11. Bidders hereby waive any claim for incidental, consequential or exemplary damages arising from this auction. The sole remedy that any participant in the auction shall have for any claim or controversy arising out of the auction shall be a refund, without interest, of all or part of the purchase price paid by the participant.

12. All rights granted by the auctioneer or otherwise available to bidders and purchasers, under these Auction Terms or otherwise, are personal and may not be assigned or transferred to any other person or entity, whether by operation of law or otherwise. No third party may rely on any benefit or right conferred by these Auction Terms. Bidders acting as agents must disclose the agency in writing to the auctioneer prior to the auction; otherwise rights are limited to the agent and are not transferable to the undisclosed principal.

13. This Agreement shall be governed by the Laws of Malta. The parties hereto undertake and bind themselves to settle any dispute, controversy, claim or contention in relation to the auction and these Auction Terms that may arise between them amicably including with the help of mediation if necessary. In the event that an amicable solution is not found, then the parties agree to refer and resolve any unresolved dispute between them exclusively by means of arbitration proceedings within not later than 30 days from the formal registration of a dispute by one party to another. In any such event, the party or parties deciding to refer the matter to arbitration will proceed in accordance with the terms of law governing the workings and procedures of the Malta Arbitration Centre. The arbitration proceedings will be conducted in English.

14. These Auction Terms contain the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject-matter hereof, supersedes all previous agreements and understandings between the parties with respect thereto, and may not be modified except by an instrument in writing signed by the parties and/or their duly authorised representative/s. If any clause of these Auction Terms is held by any Court, tribunal or other competent authority to be void and/or unenforceable, in whole and/or in part, these Auction Terms shall continue to be valid as to the other clauses thereof and such nullity and/or unenforceability shall not, in the most ample of manners, affect the applicability and/or enforceability of the remainder of the Auction Terms.
